Form TECH-2: a brief description of the Consultant’s organization and an outline of the recent experience of the Consultant that is most relevant to the assignment. In the case of a joint venture, information on similar assignments shall be provided for each partner. For each assignment, the outline should indicate the names of the Consultant's Key Experts and Sub-consultants who participated, the duration of the assignment, the contract amount (total and, if it was done in a form of a joint venture or a sub-consultancy, the amount paid to the Consultant), and the Consultant's role/involvement.

1. Provide here a brief description of the background and organization of your company, and – in case of a joint venture – of each member for this assignment.

B - Consultant’s Experience

1. List only previous similar assignments successfully completed in the last 7 (Seven) years.

2. List only those assignments for which the Consultant was legally contracted by the Client as a company or was one of the joint venture partners. The Consultant should be prepared to substantiate the claimed experience by presenting copies of relevant documents and references if so requested by the Client.
Using the format below, provide information on each assignment for which your Consultant/entity, either individually as a corporate entity or as one of the major companies within an association, was legally contracted.

Section 7. Terms of Reference

1. Introduction

Information on energy resources and its consumption provide sound bases for appropriate policy formulation and planning of the energy sector towards sustainable development. It requires regular update and compilation of the resource status through primary research survey and study programs. The information helps in resources planning and management in integrated way. Energy resources have multiple usage. Fuel wood resources can be used for other wood demanding areas. Similarly agricultural residues and animal dung has vital contribution in agricultural production. Use of water resources also has multiple benefits like Hydropower generation, Irrigation, drinking water supply etc. Society can also achieve maximum benefits once the resources are utilized at optimum level for the concerned purpose. This requires actual field based information so that benefits can be accessed from multiple perspectives.

Water and Energy Commission Secretariat (WECS) has been involved in collection and analysis of the field based energy resources and consumption information since its establishment. WECS completed Sectorial Energy Supply/Demand Profiles at the regional level and Residential Energy Supply/Demand Profiles at the district level during 1990-1995. Such regional and district level sectoral energy supply demand profiles were updated and compiled in 1995/96 at national level. Industrial Sector Energy Consumption Survey was completed in 1997/98 covering both traditional and modern sector. Furthermore, WECS conducted the Commercial Sector Energy Consumption Survey in 1998/99 and Transport Sector Energy Consumption in the year 1999/2000. Agricultural Sector Energy consumption survey was also completed in 2000/01. Based on these primary surveys of energy demand supply situation, WECS published Energy Sector synopsis report in regular basis. Energy Consumption and Supply Situation of Nepal, 2011/12 is the latest survey carried out by WECS. WECS routinely conducts such primary surveys and prepares reports related to the development of the energy sector in Nepal, for example, estimation of resource potential, energy consumption and conversion technologies appropriate for Nepal's future economic growth, modernization, socio-economic development, policy researches and demonstration studies. Such information obtained from surveys and studies provide a scientific basis which would be a value added tool for conducting various energy policy analysis and energy modeling exercises.

As Nepal has entered into federal system with 753 local bodies and 7 provinces. Till date all the energy data are collected and compiled centrally. So WECS is planning to collect the data of energy consumption, supply and project energy demand of each province. This is just the initial step towards micromanagement of the energy data base. Though, WECS is publishing energy synopsis and energy data sheet frequently but previous data does not give any information about provinces. According to constitution 2015, every province has right to plan the project and in order to achieve their goal, province needs data related to energy. Energy consumption, energy supply and energy demand of each province shall be quantified after completing this project. WECS acting as an umbrella organization is going to collect and compile all the energy database of each province and district so that it would help province for the planning and management of energy resource.
An Integrated Energy Information System shall be established at WECS, which shall serve as a center of excellence. For such center, all sorts of data related to energy need to be collected, analyzed and updated regularly. Such system is of great importance in projecting future energy demand. On this backdrop WECS intends to invite National Consultants to conduct a survey on energy consumption and supply situation as well as project the future energy demand of all provinces of Nepal.

2. Objective of the study

The main objective of this project is to find the existing situation of energy consumption and supply situation of the energy resources at local, districts and Provincial level of Province No. 1 and Province No. 2 and forecast energy demand up to 2040 A.D. of the provinces at different economic growth rates (socio economic, demography & technology). The outcomes of this study shall be further presented in three physiographic regions (Himalaya, Mountains and Terai).

Followings are the specific objectives of the survey work in each province:

- To determine the present status of energy consumption and supply situation in all economic sectors namely residential/domestic, industrial, transport, commercial/business, agricultural, construction & mining industries and other sectors with energy resources potential of all districts of Province No. 1 and Province No. 2 including physiographic region.
- To prepare energy flow diagram (Sankey chart)
- To estimate the future energy demand of all type of energy for 20 years period in all economic sectors (Residential, Industrial, Commercial, Transport, Agriculture, Construction and Mining sectors) disaggregated by Province No. 1 and Province No. 2 at different growth scenarios (socio economic, demography & technology).
- Suggest the most appropriate and relevant models for energy demand forecast and add the data required to be collected
- To assess the supply demand balance of the energy resources by physiographic region of all Districts of Province No. 1 and Province No. 2.
- To identify the costs of all energy resources especially the commercial energy resources in each sample unit.
- Per capita and per economic sector energy consumption need to be assessed from the survey.

3. General Scope of Work

The scope of the work is, but not limited to, following:

- Before conducting the survey on energy consumption, supply situation and demand projection, the existing plans, policies, rules, regulations and guidelines related to energy shall be reviewed.
• Primary data shall be collected at natural and local unit at first and then converted into standard gigajoules (GJ) and Ton of Oil Equivalent (ToE) unit later during analysis.
• Both Total as well as Specific energy consumption of supply and demand in all economic sectors by each fuel type shall be provided.
• The study shall be carried out for all districts of Province No. 1 and Province No. 2 including three physiographic regions for the sample survey.
• The output of the survey should contain the energy consumption status of all district of Province No. 1 and Province No. 2. Total and Specific energy consumption of economic sectors and sub sectors, by each fuel types, end uses and energy technologies/devices shall be found out from this survey.
• The output of the survey shall also contain energy supply potential and demand projection of all energy forms of these provinces.
• The estimation of the sample size shall be within 95% level of confidence with 5% margin error and cent percent response rate. The ultimate location for determination of sample size of all economic shall be district level. The number of sample units should be large enough to secure such accuracy or precision.
• Major statistical information of the energy consumption in each Economic Sector at district and provincial level shall be assessed during the survey. Specially the average energy consumption, standard deviation/variation, coefficient of variation, standard error of the mean should be found out for each type of energy consumption in all sectors.
• After collection and compilation of all the data, energy demand of Province No. 1 and Province No. 2 by sector and fuel type shall be forecasted by using freely available software/model. The time period of the forecast shall be upto 2040 A.D., based on the survey carried out and secondary data if necessary.
• All the energy resources available and used in the country should be considered while surveying the energy consumption, demand and supply status. All the energy resources used in all economic sectors for all purposes and end uses by all devices should be identified during the survey. Energy resources shall be categorized into renewable and non-renewable energy resources. Renewable energy shall then be divided into conventional renewable and new renewable. Conventional renewable energy is further divided into traditional biomass and modern biomass whereas new renewable category includes the solar energy, wind energy, solar-wind hybrid system, geothermal energy, hydrogen fuel, hydropower etc. The traditional biomass means fuel wood, agricultural residues and animal dung whereas modern biomass includes both liquid and non-liquid biofuels. Biogas from the animal and human excreta and other waste biomass, ethanol, biodiesels are some of the examples of the liquid biofuels whereas non liquid biofuel means bio briquettes, charcoal etc. Nonrenewable energy resources primarily include the fossil fuel that covers petroleum fuel, natural gas, coals.
• Based on the ToR, detailed survey questionnaire separately for each economic sectors shall be prepared, which needs to be approved by WECS before mobilizing in the field survey.
• Before conducting Energy Consumption, Supply and Demand survey, training programme for the enumerators, field supervisors and WECS staffs shall be organized.

PART II

Section 8. Conditions of Contract and Contract Forms

Foreword

1. Part II includes standard Contract forms for Consulting Services (a Lump-Sum Contract).

2. Lump-Sum Contract: This type of contract is used mainly for assignments in which the scope and the duration of the Services and the required output of the Consultant are clearly defined. Payments are linked to outputs (deliverables) such as reports, drawings, bill of quantities, bidding documents, or software programs. Lump-sum contracts are easier to administer because they operate on the principle of a fixed price for a fixed scope, and payments are due on clearly specified outputs and milestones. Nevertheless, quality control of the Consultant's outputs by the Client is paramount.
